

Broadband Enterprises Announces Syndication Partnership with Warner Bros. Online To Distribute Popular Animated Shorts

Advertising Sponsorships Available for Animated Favorites From “Looney Tunes,” “Gotham Girls,” “Timberwolf” and “Cartoon Monsoon”

New York, NY (October 24, 2005) - Broadband Enterprises announced today that it is syndicating animated video shorts from Warner Bros. Online to its broadband network of more than 400 Websites. Syndicated programming includes animated favorites from “Looney Tunes,” “Gotham Girls,” “Timberwolf” and “Cartoon Monsoon.”

All of the animated video shorts are available in Flash, delivering superior quality pictures. In addition, Broadband Enterprises will sell advertising sponsorships around the programming.

The syndication of Warner Bros. Online’s original “Looney Tunes” web shorts began this summer on targeted kids websites Kaboose.com, Kidsdomain.com, Funschool.com, Zeeks.com, Piczo.com and Bonus.com.

Broadband Enterprises represents a network of more than 400 websites, which delivers more than 350 million video streams each month. The company syndicates and produces short- and long-form video for the Internet, and buys, produces and distributes advertiser’s programming across its growing network.
