

Parenting website Kaboose reports revenue tripled

Tuesday, November 7, 2006, p. B11

Kaboose Inc., an operator of websites focused on topics such as pregnancy, parenting, birthday parties, entertainment and education, has reported a tripling in third-quarter revenue to $5.9-million. Kaboose said yesterday its loss was $224,000 or nil per share in the three months ended Sept. 30. This compared with a year-earlier loss of $817,000 or 5 cents a share on revenue of $1.8-million. Revenue from advertising and on-line purchases was boosted by the recent acquisitions of TwoPeasInABucket.com and BabyZone.com, along with "very strong organic growth," the company said. Kaboose added it ended the quarter with $13.25-million in cash and no debt. KAB (TSX) fell 9 cents to $1.95. CP
